Dampiers Round

Peter and Moira Gutteridge who hail from Worcestershire have been our regular resident musicians at our Folk Dance weekends for several years and bring a lively sound on a variety of instruments - mainly fiddle, guitar and bass, but often flute, keyboard and harp.

Dampier's have established a reputation as a Folk Festival Dance Band, a Playford Ball Band, or Ceilidh or Barn Dance Band. We run workshops in playing folk music at Halsway Manor, Folk Festivals, Chinnor, and the Oxford Music Day.

Ray Goodswen

Ray has been a traditional dance caller and teacher since his time at St Luke's College in Exeter. He started teaching to share his love of traditional dance with others so that they might share in the pleasure. He was for 13 years the dance director at Sidmouth Festival and also director of the Eastbourne International Folk Dance Festival. Nowadays he spends more time calling for local clubs whilst still running courses at Halsway Manor the Westfolk weekend in Paignton (now in its 36th year) and other events. However there is nothing more that he enjoys than actually dancing with his wife Liberty.

* Our introductory offer is available to the first fifteen claimants
